

The Impossible Happens

By Kristina Reeve

I had been doing Spanish businesses all morning in North Plainfield, NJ, when I entered a Martial Arts Training Center. A young man, probably in his 20s, came out of his office and started looking at the books. With each book he looked at, he became more and more excited. I showed him the Great Controversy, Peace Above the Storm, Health Power, God's Answers and Pathways to Health and Happiness. "This is just what I needed!" he exclaimed, "God must have sent you here. Last night I was praying that God would show me the reason why I'm living, and to show me the way to live, and here you come with these books!"

He went on to tell his story, sharing that he was a foster child, and the Martial Arts trainer had taken him in, and treated him like a son. "I need these books," he continued, "how much are they?" When I told him the price, he went to get his wallet, but then he remembered that he had forgotten his checkbook. He tried his hardest to find a way to get his checkbook, but his mother wasn't able to bring it, his brother had already left for work, and his friend wasn't home. Now what should I do? I asked him where he lived, and to my surprise he said East Third Street in the town of Plainfield, NJ. We were already planning on going to that very street at the end of the day to do some follow-up on another contact! We got directions to his house and promised to come around 8:30pm. He promised to be there and buy the books. All afternoon I prayed that he would keep his word. After picking up everyone at the end of the day, we headed to that young man's home on Third Street. We finally found his house, and praise God, he was home and bought all five books!
